CHASE BOUND TO "TURN OVER."

The Ex-Warden May Resist Never So Hard, but Nevertheless He Most Go.

Topeka, Kas., May 11.-(Special.) The political cases have all been heard in the supreme court, and are under advisement by the judges. Yesterday, Jobes vs. Breidenthal was argued, and to-day Warden Chase vs. the board of penitentary direc-tors, Senator Householder vs. Governor-Morrill, and Mrs. Lease vs. George A. Morrill, and Mrs. Loase vs. George A. Clark, were submitted upon their merits. Some of the friends of Warden Chasshave been doing a good deal of talking about the course the warden intends to pursue. They say that he has about concluded that the report of the investigating committee will be adverse to him, and that the governor will at once appoint Bruellynch as warden upon the tiling of the report. Chase's plan is them to refuse to turn over the penileutiary to the new warden and force him to go into the silvents.

a Political Move.

Washington, May II.—(Special.) The speciacle of Don Dickinson twisting the British lion's tail by way of an after dinner entertainment is looked upon as part of a scheme planned by Mr. Cleveland for the purpose of righting himself in the minds of the people of the United States. Twenty-four hours before Mr. Dickinson's last delivery he was with the president and had been for some days, in fact, and it is firmly believed by those in a position to know that Mr. Dickinson is playing a role assigned him by the president. Of course, the plan is to have it appear that Mr. Dickinson's remarks are inspired and come fresh from the president and cover his opinion in fact but, owing to something that cannot be divulged, he could not in the late garb of England take this anti-British policy outlined by Mr. Dickinson. It being plain to the president that his foreign policy, or the lack of it, has nanseated the people and, fearing they will rebound against his future designs in the little matter of keeping in office, he has concluded to have it go out that he is in accord with the Dickinson style of foreign policy and not the kind headed by Mr. Bayard or that which bears the official signature of Mr. Gresham.
